At the last meeting of the Toney Creek Democratic Club, a resolution was adopted expressing the thanks of that Club to Messrs. Murray, Prince and Wardlaw for their services in securing for so many of our young men the right to certain education. The resolution was adopted by about six hundred Democratic voters to Anderson's roll.

Wednesday morning a negro man, engaged at work on the water works, was killed by a steam engine. He was standing in putting up the standpipe, when a piece of the pipe, weighing 1200 pounds, fell upon him, crushing him and leaving him low the knee. He received prompt attention, and the physicians fear that his leg will have to be amputated.

Sheriff Bell received a telegram Tuesday announcing the death of his sister, Mrs. Emily Webb, of Mr. C. L. Webb, which occurred at her home in Pelzer Tuesday morning. Mrs. Webb was 41 years of age, and was a devoted mother of seven children to mourn her death. She was a good woman, and her friends will hear of her death with sorrow.

Mr. Henry Bailey, of Laurens County, passed through last night on his way home from Montgomery, Ala. He went to Alabama some time ago to collect some money, but he failed in his efforts, and not having any means, he was forced to tramp home. He said he had been on the road two weeks, and seemed to have stood his tramp well.

The pulpit of the Presbyterian Church was occupied last night by Rev. John T. McBryde, D. D., of Marshall, Texas, who is now visiting his mother in Pelzer. His sermon was a beautiful one, and his singing and eloquent, and his many old friends were pleased to hear him and greet him. Dr. McBryde will preach in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday morning.

A commission has been issued by the Secretary of State for the organization in this city of the Anderson Shinning and Manufacturing Company. The commission will be the operation of a gin, a cotton seed oil mill and a fertilizer factory. The capital stock will be $25,000 in shares of $50 each. The corporations are J. I. Fretwell, P. K. McCully, J. L. Glenn, W. G. Watson, L. R. Watson and J. S. Fowler.

Messrs. John and Will Bell, Lewis Abernethy and Will Milford spent last Friday night singing in Seneca River at Rogers' Shinning and Manufacturing Co. They sang 443 sets, one of which—a blue cat—measured three feet and four inches in length, and weighed 17 pounds. His fish was exhibited in the city Saturday, and many of our citizens say it is the largest cat fish that has ever been caught in the Seneca.

The card of Mr. R. S. Ligon, one of our live grocery dealers, which appeared in the INTELLIGENCER last week, no doubt attracted the attention of every one of our readers. He has fitted up a new delivery wagon, and now delivers goods free to his customers in any part of the city. He handles the best goods, and his prices are remarkably low. Give him a trial order, and we venture you will go back and give him another order.

Another new enterprise has been developed in Anderson, and will be in operation by September 1st. It is a Steam Laundry. Messrs. R. A. Mayfield, J. S. Fowler, R. S. Ligon, R. B. Vandiver and J. S. Ligon, as co-proprietors, have applied to the Secretary of State for a commission to organize the company, with a capital of $2,500 all of which has been subscribed. A laundry is something that has been needed in Anderson a long time, and we predict for it a good business.

Protracted meetings are now being carried on in several Churches in this County, and there are soon to begin, and we hope to see during this summer a genuine revival of religion, and a better feeling among our people. We cannot afford to neglect the cause of the great King of Kings and expect to prosper. He is pouring out his blessing upon us, but if while receiving it we turn our backs on Him may we not expect disappointment? He is the God of this world as well as the God of Heaven.

An advertisement of the Williamson Female College appears in another column, and we direct special attention to it. The fall session of the College begins September 1st. This institution is one of the best in the South, and is growing more popular every year. In course of instruction it is thorough and complete, and when a young lady secures a diploma there, it is something to be proud of. Parents having daughters to be educated, should write to Mr. Lander, the accomplished President, for a catalogue.

Anderson County will be entitled to two beneficiary Cadets in the South Carolina Militia Academy this fall. A competitive examination will be held by the County Board on September 15th to decide upon the two men who will be sent to the academy for information and forms on which to apply for permission to appear before the Board and receive the commissions.

Johnston Hagood, Barrowell, S. C., before 1st September. Read the advertisement in another column, and you will see that the necessary information will get all the necessary information.

The Mountain Creek neighborhood has decided to have a big basket picnic at Mountain Creek Church on Thursday, August 1st. The invitation is extended to the public generally, and to all of the candidates for State, Congressional and county offices to present themselves. The exercises are determined to make every person who attends have a good time, and every voter, whether he is for or against Tillman, will be cordially welcomed. Remember the date and be sure to go, for we know you will have a good time.

The members of Hopewell Alliance will have a picnic at Hopewell Church on Friday, August 8th, and have invited Trinity, Piercetown, Hunters Spring, Whitfield and Williamsburg Alliances to join with them and make the occasion a big success. The public generally and the candidates especially are invited to attend, and everybody will be expected to bring their dinner baskets. Speeches may be made, and the day will be a happy one. Messrs. W. A. Neal, A. T. Newell and T. M. King constitute the Committee of Arrangements, and they will be glad to receive any suggestions that will add to the pleasure of the day.

The picnic given by the people of the Sunday School at Broadway school house last Saturday was a very successful one, and was attended by a representative of the INTELLIGENCER. The day was not so hot as to be oppressive. There were there with the determination to have a good time, and to assist others in the enjoyment of the day. The morning was spent very pleasantly in listening to the music of the choir, and in the afternoon, after a picnic, the day was closed with a song.

Mrs. Nancy C. Harris, wife of Mr. David Harris, died at her home in Hopewell, S. C., on Friday, 18th inst., aged 70 years. Mrs. Harris died of a complication of diseases, after a long and painful illness. She was the mother of twelve children, eight of whom, with her husband, are left to cherish her memory. It was a great grief to her family, and she was very ready to sympathize with and lend a helping hand to her neighbors, especially in times of sickness and distress. She was a faithful member of the White Plains Baptist Church.

The advertisement of the Mutual Life Insurance Company has no doubt been read by all of our readers. The gain of insurance made by this Company in 1880 was the greatest ever made by any Company in the history of the world, which sustains its record for fair dealing and large dividends to policy holders. This Company is doing a large business in our section, and is now represented in our city by Messrs. J. D. Maxwell and J. B. Earle. Mr. Maxwell confines himself to work in his office in connection with other business. Mr. Earle is a very capable man, and is well liked by all. He is now in the city, and is spending a few days with his family.

Last Friday night a special train going toward Seneca City was almost wrecked. The cause was from an iron rail being placed over the track by some landish person. The train was injured, and considerable other damage done. Fortunately nobody was hurt. Saturday morning the train was repaired, and it was able to go on its way. The preliminary investigation took place Tuesday before Trial Justice Todd. The defendants were represented by Messrs. J. B. Earle, the track supervisor, was sent to the scene of the vile attempt to wreck the train, and after an investigation by taking notes and gathering information as he could get, he came to this place and swore out a warrant against the defendant, a white man, and Wiley Anderson, a black man, charging them with placing obstructions on the C. & G. The Saluda Baptist Sunday School Institute, which was held last week with the Baptist Sunday School at Homes Path, was in every particular, a real and genuine success. While all those appointed to the institute were present, and all the discussions were full and exceedingly interesting. It was just one of those rare occasions when the subjects were discussed in such a way as to be interesting and profitable to all. The institute was a very successful one, and we predict for it a good business.
